

Art award to Byrd

creative writing magazine THE PEGASUS, and is studying in art while attending ABAC.

According to Tyron Spearman, Director of Public Relations, "We are extremely proud of Mark and his record at ABAC. He has done a splendid job in the Art Department and he is a credit to his community, his high school and his parents. At right is D. J. Clyde Driggers, ABAC president.

TIFTON, GA. — Mark Byrd, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Byrd of Clermont, has been honored at Abraham Baldwin College here for Outstanding Achievement in Art. Mark was presented a special engraved plaque on Honors Day for his contributions to the Art Department at ABAC during the past year.

A graduate of Clermont High School, Mark is an active member of the Rotoract Club, ABAC Chorus, the Art Editor of the